

CORK CONNECTIONS

A one-day conference celebrating aspects of Cork's involvement with the wider world

Saturday 6 July, University College Cork, Geography Lecture Theatre, Main Campus

Organised by Adult and Continuing Education, University College Cork, in association with the Cork Historical and Archaeological Society

THIS IS FREE EVENT AND EVERYONE IS WELCOME TO ATTEND

Programme

9.30-9.40: Conference opening.

9.40-10.25: Professor William O'Brien, 'The meeting of cultures: 8000 years of prehistoric Cork connections with the outside world'.

10.25-11.10: Dr Clare McCutcheon, 'A rich and rare stew: the potted history of Cork'.

11.10-11.45: COFFEE

11.45-12.30: Dr Dagmar Ó Riain-Raedel, 'Cork and Europe: the medieval connection'.

12.30-2.00: LUNCH

2.00-3.00 'KEYNOTE SPEAKER': Professor James S. Donnelly Jr, 'The exodus of protestants from County Cork during and after the War of Independence'.

3.00-3.45: Dr Nollaig Ó Muraíle, 'Irish genealogical collections as a mirror of Irish / Munster / Cork population through the ages'.

3.45-4.30: Dr Hilary Lennon, 'Exile and the Irish writer: Frank O'Connor's Cork'.